Media Ignores David Duke Candidacy

David Duke announcing his candidacy for President.

About three months ago David Duke declared himself a presidential candidate in the Democratic Party primary. Duke is at present the leader of the National Association for the Advancement of White People and was formerly a leader of the Ku Klux Klan and a member of Matt Koehl's National Socialist White People's Party. The Democratic Party has said that it will do everything in its power to prevent Duke's name from getting on primary election ballots, but legally they are on soft ground. Once the smoke clears it is likely that Duke will get on in a number of states, particularly in the South.

Despite efforts by Duke to woo the press, so far the media has put the death grip of silence on him. This, of course, is the obvious strategy to follow and so it is unlikely that there is any conspiracy in this regard as some have claimed. Rather, it is just the case that those with similar world views act similarly. The plutocrats and media masters will do everything they can to prevent the issue of Race from being introduced into American politics - at least when the race in question is the White Race. Duke will have to do something dramatic to surmount the wall of silence built around him by the "guardians of free speech", and in doing so he may be forced to sacrifice the image of moderation that he has so carefully cultivated since he left the Klan.

THE SYSTEM WILL COOPT

Duke is now so moderate that the System could easily coopt his stated positions and destroy any movement that he builds on the basis of those positions. This is not mere conjecture. The National Front of Britain was going great guns in the late seventies on the platform that colored immigration had to be stopped. In the elections in 1979, Margaret Thatcher declared that she would stop colored immigration, and the moderates defected en masse from the NF to the Conservative Party.

Mayor Van Grack Chickens Out

In the last issue of The Nationalist (Sep87) we declared that the mayor of Rockville, Maryland, Steven Van Grack, lied like a newspaper about the NDF and challenged him to open debate at any time and at any place. The host of a local radio talk show, Barry Locke of WMET, notified Van Grack's office that he would be happy to sponsor the debate. But Van Grack's staff told Locke that the Mayor refused to debate Gary Gallo, leader of the NDF.

So what is Van Grack afraid of? Obviously, he realizes that an open debate would reveal the hypocrisies and contradictions in his political "philosophy". He knows that we would reveal him as a tool of the special interests and point out that the vast majority of his huge campaign warchest comes from donors who live outside of Rockville. These contributors have an agenda that they wish Rockville to follow and Van Grack is their instrument.

Duke is proposing an end to the "Great Society" programs that everybody knows have failed. He is against forced busing, against affirmative action, against "fair housing" laws, against continued colored immigration, against the "Welfare State", and for "law and order." This is an approach that has the chance of gaining mass support in the short term. But Duke is playing politics with the masters of the game and he is out of his league. When it becomes obvious to the plutocrats and Jews that the mood of the White majority has turned very sour, they will give in on each and every point above and may even sacrifice the Blacks for good measure by going back to a system of limited segregation. Yes, they will do all this in order to forstall revolution if they become frightened enough. And then where will we be?

The summer soldiers would declare victory and would go home and we would be left with a racially mixed country dominated still by the capitalist elites who can afford to be patient in the game of economic exploitation and mongrelization. Eventually, the money of the Jews and capitalists would prevail and we would begin again back down the same dark road of individualism to ultimate racial and cultural oblivion. Only complete destruction of the capitalist order and the creation of a pure White nation based on amity, honesty and social justice can save our People. Reform is not the answer. Revolution is the only solution.

A CALL TO PURITY

We implore the leaders of the old racialist movement not to be seduced by the prospect of dramatic short term gain. If we stay true to our fundamental beliefs and refuse to compromise then the people will respect us for it and will turn to us in the end. Do not sully the racialist movement by playing politics with the System. Only honor and honesty can bring us victory. For a politician politics is the art of accomplishing the possible, but for a political leader politics is the art of accomplishing the apparently impossible. Nationalist movements have a long tradition of achieving what conventional pundits see as unattainable, and the National Democatic Front will uphold that heritage by astounding those who think that the American people are not ready for the Truth and for Revolution. SHORT BURSTS

The Real Victims in Howard Beach

The press and prosecutors have painted the three Black men who fought with Whites in Howard Beach, New York as innocent victims stranded by a broken-down car. But now that the trial has opened the truth is finally coming out. One of the so-called victims, Timothy Grimes, now admits that he brandished a knife during the incident, something that he had previously denied; Grimes was also awaiting trial on charges of assault and criminal possession of a silencer, and had been previously arrested for burglary. Michael Griffith, the man who was killed by a passing car when he tried to flee across the highway, was wanted on an arrest warrant for failing to appear in an assault case three weeks earlier, and he was found to have cocaine in his blood at his autopsy. The third Black, Cedric Sandiford, has twice been convicted on gun charges and served two years in prison for threatening a neighbor with a sawed-off shotgun. Only one of the White youths on trial for this "murder" has a criminal record: Jon Lester pleaded guilty to gun possession charges when was 16 years old.

In the Double-Think of multiracial America, attacks by Whites on Blacks are caused by White racism, and attacks by Blacks on Whites are caused by White racism. The System's lies eventually catch up with it, but the lives of these White kids have already been destroyed by the hate of the Establishment for all who display the least bit of White pride or racial consciousness. But be brave Howard Beach - vengeance will be ours.

Obituaries

Joseph Levine, one of Hollywood's biggest moguls, died on August 1, 1987 at the age of 81. Levine's best remembered quote: "You can fool all the people if the advertising is right." Levine, like virtually all Hollywood ~~film big-~~ shots, was a Jew.

Leonard Butkovich, the federal undercover agent who infiltrated the National Socialist Party in NC prior to the Greensboro shootout, died at the age of 36 in June of 1987 when his stunt plane crashed. At the Greensboro trial witnesses testified that Butkovich frequently urged them to obtain automatic weapons and commit murder. Seven Communists died in the Greensboro firefight but an NC jury acquited the Klansmen and Nazis who killed them largely because of this sort of outrageous governmental abuse.

Nathan Perlmutter, the national director of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, died of cancer at the age of 64 on July 12, 1987. The ADL is the nation's most powerful hate group. It tracks and hounds the enemies of Jewry. It has highly-placed lapdogs such as Ronald Reagan who awarded Perlmutter the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the nation's highest civilian award, shortly before his death.

And More Medals

The Jews apparently like medals as they often use their political clout to get them. Of course this is much easier than earning them in battle, particularly as they are loath to join the Army. According to a White House insider cited by the Washington Post, liberal Court of Appeals Judge Irving Kaufman has agreed to retire in exchange for, yes you guessed it, the Presidential Medal of Freedom. Reagan made the deal in order to get a conservative on the Second Circuit Court of Appeals in New York. According to the Post, Kaufman had long sought the award. Now you know how much the highest medal of the U.S. is worth.

Poor are More Charitable than Rich

According to a study by the Yale University Program on Non-Profit Organizations, very few of the country's wealthiest people are generous givers to charity. Only 4% of the rich were classified as generous givers, i.e. a person who who contributes at least one-fifth of his income to charity, whereas 30% fell into the nongenerous category of those who give less than 1%. The study found that the average low-income taxpayer gives a higher proportion of income to charity than both the middle-income and high-income person.

Why I Converted from Marxism
By Don Hunt

My political life did not really begin until my senior year in college at a major university on the East coast. I had gone through my colelge years without giving much thought to my future. I came from a relatively poor background in the South, and since I am the first one in my family to attend college my horizons did not extend past graduation. It was just assumed that the key to success in the world was a university education. After that, everything would flow smoothly.

I was wrong. Immediately in my path loomed the Vietnam War. I received my BA degree and 1A draft classification on the same day. At the age of 21 my perspective did not extend beyond my individual plight. It did not seem fair to me that I had just passed the first major goal of my adult life just to end up as another foot soldier in the U.S. Infantry. This feeling of somehow being singled out for unfair treatment was not helped by the fact that none of my close friends were going into the service. Given their brand new degrees, each was bound for a graduate program in law, public administration or the liberal arts. Mired in my own plight, I was not aware of the deeply tragic role that faced the American people and their sons and daughters who were called upon to do the fighting.

Faced with the inevitable, I spent an uneasy four years as an enlistee in the Air Force rather than face the consequences of being drafted. These consequences in 1967 meant almost surely a stint in Vietnam. I was lucky. I never had to serve in Vietnam, but the feeling of alienation did not go away when my service years ended. I had become aware of the existence of classes. Graduation from a university did not mean acceptance into the upper middle class to which I aspired.

I BECOME A SOCIALIST

Returning to the East to graduate school on the GI Bill, I returned to a different political climate than that which I had left. The campus had become politicized. I found new movements - anti-war, feminist and homosexual liberation. Aware only of my general alienation I found myself caught up in the "movement." I became a socialist.

It is difficult to explain to anyone too young to have experienced these changes how dramatic the times seemed. We pursued the movement with passion, conviction, and self-righteousness aware that somehow we were the tools of history. We had no history of our own, not having lived long enough to recognize that the politics we pursued were not new. Though we felt that we were on the side of righteousness, the politics we played were a replay of the politics of Marxism that so many other countries had experienced. The socialist movement was vigorously anti-war after the signing of the Hitler-Stalin pact. The Yanks are not coming the marxists chanted after the agreement was signed, only to do a complete turn around upon the German invasion of the Soviet Union. All the wires were being pulled from Moscow.

DOUBT SETS IN

The next five or six years were spend in one of the many divisions of the marxist movement. My thinking was more rigorously defined by the study of the literature of the left. I finished graduate school and obtained a position in the public welfare system of a major city on the East coast. While continuing to mouth the slogans of the left, I found myself becoming increasingly more uncomfortable. The Vietnam War had ended ignominiously and I saw American diplomats being airlifted from the top of our embassy in Saigon while our erstwhile allies were left on the ground to face the victorious Communist army. The United States was not acting like the Imperialist Power I believed it to be. The United States acted like a bewildered Gulliver beset by midgets.

Another more personal set of events was attacking my political convictions. I was working in the downtown section of a Black metropolitan area. I had begun my working career in the welfare system confident that I, as a white man, had an obligation to serve and uplift the downtrodden colored races that surrounded me. It had not yet dawned on me that I was a member of the minority, not the Blacks who surrounded me both as the public and as co-workers. I found myself subject to more and more harassment in my daily work world, and as I sought help from my Black superiors no help was forthcoming.

It began at last to dawn upon me during the last part of the 1970's that while the City Administration mouthed progressive rhetoric, it practiced the politics of the conquerer. In the name of protecting the Black minority (which was in fact the majority) the Administration voted itself large payraises

The Third Way Nor Right

Why I Converted from Conservatism
By John Cuza

In the late seventies I heard a politician named Ronald Reagan say that Americans should "pull themselves up by their bootstaps." I was so struck by this approach that I got off welfare, which the Democrats said I was entitled to, and changed my party allegiance from Democrat to Republican. For the next few years I blindly followed the policies of soon to be President Ronald Reagan and the conservative bloc of the Republican Party.

During 1984, however, I began to realize that Reagan was consistently saying one thing while doing another. He blasted the Soviets as an evil empire, then loaned the beleagured Soviet satellites in Eastern Europe millions of dollars; he granted the Black Communist leader Martin Luther King, Jr. a national holiday; he took no action to abolish the Energy and Education Departments which he promised to do; and the tax increase which he promised not to give us is now in place. From these actions it became clear to me that the "Reagan Revolution" was a blatant lie, forced on the American people by demagogues.

As I analyzed the situation further, constantly asking myself, "who is Reagan's other voice", I came to realize that the entire U.S. government is controlled by plutocrats whose only interests are preserving or increasing their own wealth and power. These "amoral" plutocrats, the Armand Hammers and the David Rockefellers, etc. use their enormous wealth to buy and threaten spineless politicians into doing their bidding, and in the process the national interests of the American people are sacrificed on the altar of power and profit.

THE PLUTOCRATIC PARTY

From this reasoning, I determined that there is no difference between the Democratic Party and the Republican Party; they are both are controlled by the wealthy special interests who determine which politicians will stay in office. In many cases politicians are "educated" by elite think tanks, such as Rockefeller's Council on Foreign Relations, and then financed into office to carry out the policies of these plutocratic organizations. Gary Allen, in his book The Insiders, points out that there are nearly 300 of these paid plutocratic agents in the Reagan administration.

Since the main goal of the two Parties, the Republicans and the Democrats, is to protect the interests of the plutocrats who keep them in office, the real issues facing the American people are ignored. Race, crime, environmental destruction, economic exploitation and social justice are barely discussed. This is because the two Parties don't want to offend the special-interest blocs and the rich capitalists who support them and who finance their political campaigns. In fact, the two reigning Parties are so eager to maintain their dictatorial hold on the American people that they allow millions of foreigners to enter the U.S. in order to classify them as special-interest voter blocs. This influx allows for overcrowding, mongrelization, racial violence, and cultural distortion, and it insures that someday America will be a coffee-colored nation of mulattos.

DUTY, HONOR COUNTRY

And so, recognizing that words like Conservative and Liberal were bogus terms used in a system of rule by the rich for the rich, I became a Nationalist. For me, Nationalism can be summed up in the West Point motto: "Duty, honor, country." This means that it is the duty of every White citizen of America to protect our nation from the hands of destruction. Recently the Black separatist minister, Louis Farrakhan said that by the year 2080 Blacks would be in the majority in the U.S. This is a fact, and it should indicate to us the necessity of replacing the wealthy ruling class with a new generation of leaders who will work to preserve the cultural and racial heritage of our nation before it is too late.

We should no longer tolerate the hypocrisy spewed to us by corrupt politicians whose only goal is to maintain their positions and privileges by catering to self-interest group politics. It is time to break the death grip that the millionaires, the feminists, the minorities, the bankers and the Jews have on America. Americans should no longer be taxed to death, robbed and raped on their own streets, or held in interest bondage by bankers for the rest of their lives. It's time for a government that will deal honestly with the American people in solving the real problems at hand.

THE ONLY SOLUTION

I believe that the National Democratic Front is offering the

and perks. In addition, Affirmative Action guidelines insured that all significant promotions went to colored applicants or the White women who were less than discriminate in who their bed partners were. I became aware of myself as a member of a minority in the midst of a non-White majority.

THE FINAL NAIL

Another significant event put the final nails in my marxist coffin. As I was taught Whites were an exploitative majority, I was also taught that socialists were a persecuted minority. As I looked around me in the Civil Service ranks, I became aware of more and more self-confessed Communists in the administrative heirarchy. Frequently they paraded themselves as "liberals" and "progressives" in their outward appearances, but they showed up as Communists at meetings that I attended. I became grimly aware as the United States began the decade of the 1980's that time and the correlation of forces in the world was moving their favor. It was no longer possible for me to retain the Marxist world view of when my day to day experiences reminded me that these people were probably going to win.

I now saw myself as a radical in the sense that I sought the roots of events, and as a member of the White working class. More and more I saw the things that I had learned to believe in and to love in the 1960's made absurd and hypocritical in the 1980's. There was a difference now between the political way I saw myself in the 1960's and in the 1980's. I now had a history. I had lived long enough to have memories of the way things were in a different time and place. The Plutocrats, Communists, and the Liberal-Colored Coalition might tell me that black was white, but I had lived long enough to know it wasn't so. I became a White Nationalist.

PLUTOCRATS SACRIFICE WHITE WORKERS

The new orthodoxy of the 1980's was that there was a Conservative revolution. It was held that, as in the 1960's, the times were changing for the better. As anyone who was astute enough to look beneath the surface could attest, this was simply not true. The "Reagan revolution" changed very little. Beneath the surface one found the same ruling class as before, but it was not ruling for the benefit of Whites as the Marxists claimed. The truth was much more subtle. The ruling class was comprised of the same members, but they ruled through shifting and fluid coalitions. While the actors changed from time to time the play went on as before.

In the meantime, it had become evident to me that the Plutocrats intended to throw a scrap to the world-wide colored majority, and that scrap was to be the heart of the American People - the White working and middle classes. That which makes us a Nation and a People was and is to be sacrificed on the altar of history.

This need not be so however. As we accept the consequences of our acts and the importance of our individual lives in the on-going drama of our People we can make a difference. White Nationalism can be the rallying cry for our People. The time is late however, and the night is almost upon us. Now is the time for all White men and women to be counted and to make a difference. That is why I joined the National Democratic Front. DH only valid alternative to the hypocrisy and self-interest politics of the two reigning political parties. The NDF will not sit back and allow knee-jerk politicians to play havoc with the lives of White American families.

Americans only have to open their eyes to see that they are not safe when they walk the streets in these United States. Do our corrupt politicians have any solutions? Our environment is being destroyed by capitalist polluters. Do we hear the special-interest controlled politicians speaking up? When American farmers are put out of business by profiteering bankers who loan the farmers millions of dollars, only to forclose on the farmers' ancestral land when they cannot repay the loans, dare the corrupt politicians protest?

It's time for new answers and drastic measures, and Democratic Nationalism offers unique and radical solutions. The philosophy of the National Democratic Front is not based on "hatred or self-interest". It is based on a spirit of integrity, love and cooperation designed to create an emotional bond between the founding White Race and its government. The NDF has the guts to stand up and fight the corruption and racial strife which is plaguing this nation, and come hell or high water, we shall be in the forefront of the struggle to save our people from multiracial genocide. JC

LETTERS

Dear Gary:

In your response to a recent letter, you cited a figure of 12 million alcoholics in the U.S. (Aug87 Nationalist). This is almost certainly a low estimate. Dr. G. Douglas Talbott, Director of the Ridgeview Institute Alcohol & Drug Program of Smyrna, Georgia claims alcoholism affects approximately 22 million Americans.

Alcoholism officially ranks as the number two killer in this country, behind cancer. Many experts believe that it is actually number one because alcohol is the undiagnosed cause of so many deaths. Sixty percent of reported cases of child abuse, most wife-beating cases, forty-one percent of assaults, thirty-nine percent of rapes, sixty-four percent of criminal homocides, and between thirty-five and sixty-four percent of fatal traffic accidents involve alcohol according to the National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism. Up to eighty percent of suicides had been drinking.

All the non-alcohol drug abuse in America does not begin to compare with alcohol's damage in terms of wasted lives, crime and dollar costs. The causes of alcoholism are still under investigation, but one thing is clear: it only happens to people who drink. Eliminate the availability of alcohol and you end the disease of alcoholism.

Yours,
Steve Meisenbach

Dear Gary,

Thank you for the June issue of The Nationalist. Great little paper. I enjoyed it....

Editor - As we predicted in the September issue of The Nationalist, the second wave of articles written about the NDF in the local Maryland press would not be as objective as the first. You can get a feel for the change from the below editorial from the Chronicle Express and my reply to it. As we went to press a new attack appeared in this paper.

Unite against Gallo

Gary Gallo took Montgomery County by surprise a few weeks back when his story appeared exclusively in the Chronicle Express. Mr. Gallo, if you missed it, heads a white supremacist organization based in Gaithersburg that seeks to separate the races in the United States. From every angle, Mr. Gallo and his group's stands are outright despicable. Though the group claims but 20 members, that is 20 too many.

Mr. Gallo claims his motive is to unite America. Unfortunately, his methods are contrary to what this country's founders established over 200 years ago. In Montgomery County business and government leaders, both black and white, have indeed united—to close off any support Mr. Gallo's group might be receiving.

County NAACP leader Roscoe Nix correctly says that people will reject Mr. Gallo and his ideas. Already his P.O. box has been cancelled. A drying up of his emotional and financial support will hopefully follow. Mr. Gallo, with his bent thoughts on racism and living, will be forced to practice his "united" policy in some other county, in some other country.

Gallo responds

To the Editor:

In regard to the hate-filled editorial and letters that you printed against me and the National Democratic Front, we refuse to stoop to your level to reply.

The NDF will eventually succeed in raising the level of political debate in this country to the plane of ideas. Our ideology of Democratic Nationalism is a complete philosophy of life based on the principles of Service and Sacrifice—service to our Nation and sacrifice for our people—and it will overthrow the morally bankrupt philosophy of individualism which the media masters and plutocrats espouse in order to keep our people divided against themselves.

Sincerely,
Gary Gallo

By refusing to debate Van Grack seeks to avoid the embarrassment that discussing real problems will bring him. He desperately wants to ignore the race conflict in his city, the vast disparity in wealth in his city, the extraordinary level of violent crime and drug abuse in his city, and the corruption, both legal and illegal, that runs rife in Rockville.

For now he can get away with it. But the NDF is growing quickly, and soon the plutocrats will not be able to run away from us, and then we will see what each side is made of. GG

SEE NO EVIL

It is truly astonishing that the ordinary American can live in a society that becomes more degenerate by the day and yet pretend not to notice. He acts as if he is wearing blinders and can see only the path that he is on. All around him families dissolve, crime runs rampant, drugs kill, the races struggle against one another, corruption and cutthroat Machiavellian manuever characterize daily life, but the ordinary American apparently sees no evil.

Yes, he sees no evil until the day that it crosses his path - until the day when he is defrauded, or he is mugged, or his son dies of a drug overdose, or his daughter is raped by Blacks, or he loses a job or promotion to affirmative action. Then his eyes suddenly open wide, and he looks around and cries out for justice. "Why does nobody care?" he moans.

Indeed, why don't you care? The decadence is all around you to see - the stench of decay is all around you to smell. Why won't you fight? Because most of you are gutless and self-interested, and you are hoping that you will be one of the lucky ones to slide through without a scratch. So when the inevitable happens don't come sniveling to us for justice because we will send you back to the cesspool from whence you came.

We are looking for those few of you who have the courage to see, the will to fight, and the vision to know that there must and will be a New Dawn for White America. Ours is a Movement of Service and Sacrifice - only the honorable need apply.
